

Marco POLO

Written by Cretin-Maitenaz Henri

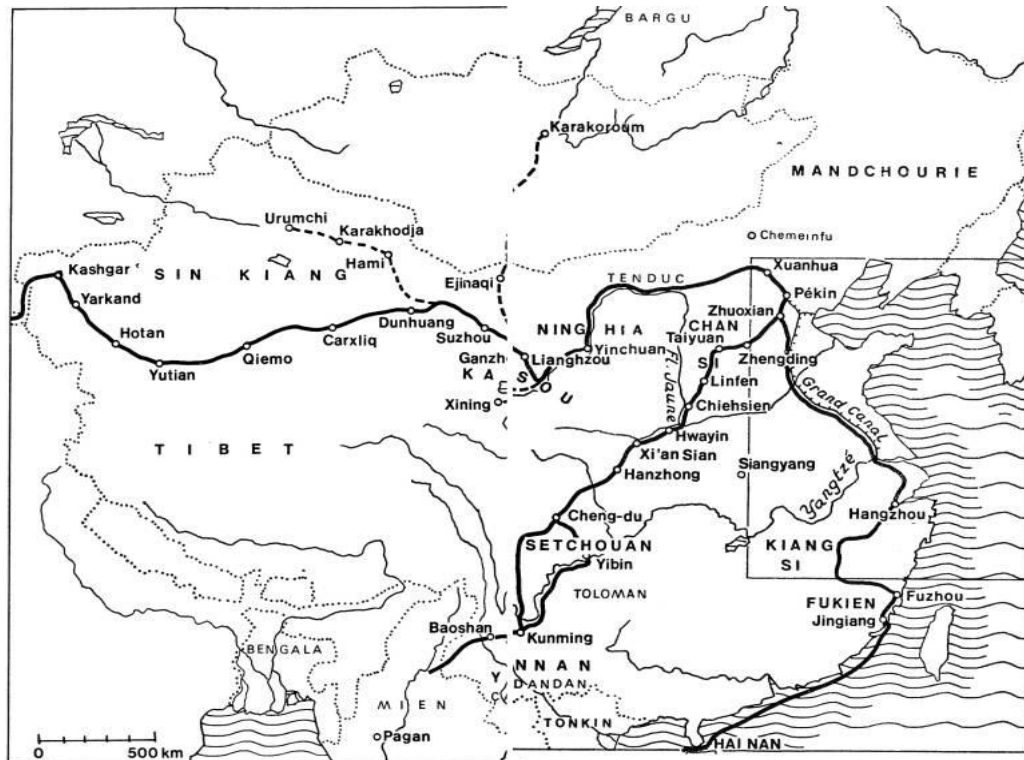

Marco POLO was born on September 15, 1254 in Venice and he died on January 9, 1324 in Venice too. He was Italian.

Marco POLO studied, then he became a messenger-investigator of the imperial palace of China, of Iran and of Russia. At this title, he will made diversses missions for the great Kubilaï Khaân.

Marco POLO started with his father and his uncle, patricians and storekeepers crossed in the service of the Great Mongolian Khaân, he reached China (1275) where he stayed for 17 years (1274 – 1291). Then he travelled in Central Asia.

Back to previous page